

Fox 25 Weekend Anchor Blair Miller
To Emcee RESOLVE New England Walk of Hope on September 18

Proceeds will benefit the infertility community

Waltham, MA: RESOLVE New England (RNE) is pleased to announce that Fox 25 weekend news anchor Blair Miller will emcee the New England Walk of Hope on Sunday, September 18 at 9:30 AM at the Endicott Estate in Dedham. Hundreds of men and women will be joining RESOLVE New England and RESOLVE: The National Infertility Association for the second annual event. Both organizations are nonprofits dedicated to education, support and advocacy for people living with infertility.

The Walk of Hope is the groups' signature fundraising event: one morning to walk one mile to unite one community. The Walk of Hope recognizes the many ways in which families are built, supports local support services and programs for the 312,000 women and men living with infertility in New England, and raises public understanding of how the disease of infertility impacts families.

The New England Walk of Hope is looking for walkers and volunteers for this important, inspirational and fun event. If you or someone you know is part of the 1 in 8 who suffer from the disease of infertility, please consider joining us on September 18. Register at www.resolve.org/newenglandwalk

About RESOLVE New England

Since 1974, RESOLVE New England has been the leading voice and progressive driving force connecting the New England community on the many paths to parenthood. RNE is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization based in Waltham, Massachusetts, serving the infertility community in the greater New England region, including Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. For more information, visit www.resolvenewengland.org.

###